

WYSCOPE ISSUE MARCH 2021

Ashish Wadhwani Managing Partner, IvyCap Ventures

FROM IVYCAP'S DESK

The year 2020 has been a challenging year. I am sure almost all of you have a range of experiences in how the pandemic has impacted your personal and your business life.

In my last write-up, I had shared with you our perspective and expectations on the time frame of business recovery and recovery of the private financial markets.

I am pleased to say, that the developments have met and even bettered our expectations.

Notwithstanding the challenges, IvyCap Portfolio and the Funds have come out stronger and bigger than pre-covid. Given the technology bias in our portfolio, our portfolio companies have scaled beyond pre-covid levels, on the back of higher adoption and usage rates. At the fund 2 level, we also found very attractive opportunities in healthcare, technology, and the consumer space to invest in new companies. So, in retrospect, COVID has been a tailwind event for us.

Looking ahead, there are still several risks and challenges to face. The key question that we have now before us is what is the investment outlook for next year in the Venture Capital space? Read more

WOMEN AT IVYCAP

Fortunately, we have come a long way from the stereotyped notions of a woman. Every woman is different, unique, and special. We, at IvyCap, respect this unbound spirit of vitality in every possible way.

"Don't let gender decide your profession. I believe we are now in a world which has already busted all myths about women not being suitable for a particular profession or job or role."

"A strong woman feels deeply and loves fiercely. Her tears flow as abundantly as her laughter. She is both soft and powerful, she is both practical and spiritual. She loves, forgives, walks away, sometimes triumphs, and fails at times. She never stops to try again, continues persevering, no matter what life throws at her"

"Be proud to be a woman, and become successful because you are a woman not in spite of it."
